

*Georgia Mountains CFO 2007
Commemorates its oldest and youngest campers*

Alma Cathcart is 96 years old. She has been attending CFO camps since the early days of the organization. She was personally acquainted with Glenn Clark, and Dr. Clark wrote about her in at least one of his books.

The photograph above shows Joshua David Lowndes, who was three days old on the first day of camp, with his happy mother, Betsy. Bill and Betsy Lowndes fell in love with Georgia Mountains CFO when they first attended and have been actively involved in leadership and service ever since.

By the last day of camp, Joshua had spent over half of his life at CFO. Is that a great way to start, or what?
